controlled the finences of a dozen nulons. We are all tailing Olympic games out here. We don't know what they do or how they do it but we want to see it. Fifty five nations are coming It will either be a success or a war so in either case you don't want to miss it. There is hundreds of women compeling only in this case they have to compete against each other and not just against the men. Ha going to be well worth seeing. Come on out you are not doing anything anyhow if you run a slore or are in business why put your customer in the car and bring him too then you won tose him. Remember the date? An Outstanding Service.
The record made by the local Satvation army post during the last winter in ser ing the needs of hundreds of desiltate presons in quest of food and indisings stands high in the list of good work done in this community at a time when the call for helping hands was most

The Salvation army is not looking for The splendid service it is performing here is done solely because those in the organization feel it is a duty they own their fellow man in accordance with their religious principles Caring for the need, in Marion la spical of the service that is being given unfortunate persons throughout the world

But despite this absolute absence of desire for material glory or reward the Suvation army can not escape expressions of brailinge commendation

The latest report of the Wasfarers lench since last October under the direction of Capinin John Hunter of the local Salvation army post shows that from that time up to April 30 a total of 22 935 meals were Captain Hunter a capable business executive as well as a devout and enthusiastic religious leader keeps an accurate detailed account of his organization's activities | His rec ord of the Wayfarers lunchroom operations would meet the requirements of the burnl of directors of any important business corpora-He has submitted it as an account of his stewardship.

This account is interesting and amazing it showing the vast amount of wholerome food used in heeping the pangs of hunger away from the hundreds of penniless persons who called at the Wayfarers lunchroom during the last winter. The Wayfarers lunchroom has been far more than a mere soup kitchen

The lunchroom, the Salvation army lodging rooms and other relief projects of the organ-ization could not be maintained of course. were it not for the cooperation and assistance of generous Marion citizens Captain Runter and his aspeciates would place emphasis upon that. But primaris, the work is made 103 sible by the initiative of the Salvation arms And the work will go on even on a more extensive scale than ever it Mation different who are able to help provide the means. That they should be willing and ready to do without urging or solicitation

posited a packet of guiden needs instead of his money envelope in the collection plate had done so intentionally he would have been con tributing more to the cause than can be cred iled to many other citizens

Peace in Shanghai

Japan and China are through fighting for he present. The Lingur of Nations thank stop them, but their uwn exhaustion did both The United States which only a few month ago was viewing their quintel with test alarm as a menace to international react is giad that an agreement has been reached. But it is a dull soil of pladness neighborhood fighting hasn't been nearly so impuliant in the last few months as the frontle at him.

Japan has not carried out the intention ascided to her by write. China has not been placed under Japanese Control no has the disastious boycott of Inpane a goods hinn Still Japan has demonstrated pos of vest military and moved powerchough to strike at China aimost at will as that popular support can be enlisted If a victor were to be named it would have to be lapan. Since fighting started their have been both profit and loss in her nutional

On the favorable side of the ledger are control of Manchuria a certain increase in national prestige resulting from a display of ower and an exhibition to the political opposition of the military party at home that ken erals and admirals have the upper bond liven these results of the conflict can not be classed as advantageous without some dispute

But consider the numerous losses! A little has been gained at the tremendous cost of straining the economic etructure of the Jap ancse nation beliaving international confidence sacrificing of life incurring a more incurring a more watchful enmits on the part of Russia and proving to a hestile Chinese population the necessity for a united government which as suredly would not be friendly to Japan

It probably never will be settled to the satisfaction of all just what Japanese intentions were in what Japan Insists were two uniand the fighting in Shanghai. It is not given the masses to understand such delicately
